

Don't forget...

...Practical training courses

SKC offers regularly held ONE day practical training courses in air monitoring.

The course is suitable for beginners through to those wanting a refresher.

It can be tailored and run in-house and is a mixture of theory and practical sessions.

The course includes:

- Introduction to air sampling methods
- Exposure limits – what they are and how to monitor for them
- Dust/gas/vapour sampling - how, when and why – the recognised methods
- Practical sampling exercises with equipment
